

ROBERT WYATT dj at Radio Popolare

In late November - early December 1994, Robert Wyatt was in Milan for the book launch of Falsi movimenti (Italian edition, published by Arcana, of Mike King's Wrong Movements). Radio Popolare asked him to do an interview (live broadcast in the evening of Saturday 3 December by Popolare Network) and a short series of radio programmes (the full Italian transcription & translation of both interview & series – including all playlists – is in <http://tinyurl.com/gv7r9>).

Shows 1, 2 and 3 were originally recorded at Radio Popolare without a break (like being just one long single show). Some days before recording them, Wyatt gave Achilli and Borella the list of songs and LPs he needed and they found all of them with a little help from their friends Giovanni Venosta and Claudio Sessa.

Then, back home, Wyatt recorded two more shows, and composed and recorded a signature tune (in three different versions), which was subsequently added to the previous shows too.
